Centennial Edition — Theme:

“A Century of Witnessing for Christ”

Acts 26:22-23

Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

Theme Song: A Century of Witnessing

Tune: Amazing Grace (MacIntosh)

A Century of witnessing for Christ
Of working toward our goals;
Today we pause to give God praise,
As rapture floods our souls.

Our work for Christ has just begun,
He asks of us our best;
To witness is each Christian’s job,
But we must stand the test.

Our witnessing must reach and touch
The lost — the great, the small;
Like Paul, we face a challenge, great,
To love and win them all.

We’ve labored hard one hundred years,
Our work has just begun;
Will bear the torch of witnessing
Until Christ says — “well done.”

Words by Johnnie Mims Sanders

Foreword

This pictorial overview is a compilation of shared experiences and findings of a century of unbroken Christian service. Numerous churches, families, auxiliaries and missionary departments are shown in the scheme of history, as we attempt to bring to life the Woman's Convention's efforts to continue its work in the redemptive plan of Salvation.

The Woman's Convention has reached one hundred years of unbroken service with Christ, so let us all give God praise for the glorious heritage that we enjoy. This book reflects the achievements of the challenge to assist Christ in a continuing program for Action. "CHRIST IN EVERY HOME" still serves as a goal. The achievement of having accepted the Christian challenge is a rewarding thrust. Gathering and preparing materials for this book have brought us to a better understanding of sacrifices of the pioneers, and the elements of LOVE, FAITH, UNITY and HOPE that are lasting to this age. These visible elements, as we read the history, can change us all to new unselfish Christians — READY TO SERVE THE PRESENT AGE.

We declare this a successful century, justified by FAITH, LOVE and HOPE, and OBEDIENCE to the Master's will. Success, according to the late Booker T. Washington, founder of the great Tuskegee Institute, "Is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life, as by the obstacles which one has overcome while trying to succeed." We can rejoice this century with the Psalmist, as we pray and appreciate His goodness and His mercy. The radiance of His redemption has not bee dimmed by the cruel realities of daily living.

"Bless the Lord, O my soul,
And all that is within me
Bless his holy name."

Shaw University and Tupper Memorial Baptist Church were first known as Blount Street Baptist Church. Both of these institutions were conceived in the mind of Dr. Henry Martin Tupper, a soldier in the Union Army.

Dr. Tupper held his first class in the autumn of 1865. A half dozen deacons and ministers who had their homes in Raleigh were formed into a class for the purpose of learning to read and explain the scriptures.

In 1866 a building was erected to furnish accommodations for a school and also the Second Baptist Church, which was organized February 17, 1866. There were twenty-two members in the original roll of Tupper, eighteen women and four men. Dr. Tupper was the first pastor.

"The first missionary that went from this state to Africa was Mr. Sherwood Cupps, who served as church clerk while an active member of Tupper Memorial."

In 1968 Reverend Debnam, Sr., was called to succeed Reverend R. W. Styles. Since that date, fifteen years ago, many astounding achievements have been realized.

SISTER HARRIET S. JONES

"I am personally happy to welcome the Woman's Convention to its founding place, my church, Tupper Memorial Baptist Church.

When we entertained the Convention for its 50th Anniversary, President Hattie Shepard asked then if we would entertain the 100th session. Our church agreed, not knowing whether it would ever happen. I am the only one living who was there that day. Today, you are carrying out her wishes and it makes me so happy."

Mrs. Thelma C. Horton, President
Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary
Convention of North Carolina

May I extend greetings and congratulations to the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention on the occasion of your centennial celebration.

The General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina expresses its appreciation for your love and devotion to the work of your Convention and for the increasing cooperation to our total work here in North Carolina and on the foreign fields.

Surely, we are laborers together, and your leadership in this way helps to make known the will of God for men and women of this State and this earth.

We salute the work of the Woman's Convention; we know this work to be the results of vision, of organization and of dedication.

The fellowship of your Convention is enjoyable; the friendship is imperative and your cooperation is always our strength.

Again, let me congratulate you and send our prayers and best wishes, I am:

Yours truly,

E. B. Turner

"Support the Unified Program"

Our President

In the Name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, Greetings to all to whom these greetings come!

One hundred years ago, the distinguished leaders of our Convention, pioneering in the field of missions and Christian Education, endured the birth pains, which brought this noble Convention into being. Today, we pay great souls who blazed the trail through those challenging and trying times. They raised a standard that has continued to inspire and beacon the supporters of this great Convention on to higher heights.

These one hundred years are replete with sparkling examples of courageous leadership, unquenching sacrifices, spiritual growth and developments, aids to education, home and foreign missions, inspiration to youth and young adults and an undaunted faith in face of overwhelming odds.

Have you not heard the steady beat of the feet of these great individuals who have continued to march into the direction of achieving the aim of our Motto: "Christ in Every Home?"

It is my pleasure as your humble servant to congratulate the leadership and fellowship which has kept this august body moving toward the "mark of the high calling which is in Christ, Jesus, our Lord." Many souls have made sacrifices which have gone unheralded and unrewarded in this life, but their names are recorded in the Lamb's Book in Heaven. May I urge each of you, one and all, to continue to put forth every effort to insure the progress of our esteemed Convention. Those who have gone before us have poured out their souls to make it possible for us to enter into the joy and splendor of today's multi-ministries. Some will say that the challenges of today are greater than ever before. We do live in a drug-crazed, sex-oriented, greed-filled, religious-poluted, violent-proned society. Seemingly, we have a task far greater than those who preceded us. Thanks be to God, our computerized age has equipped us with tools equaled to the task. It is our responsibility to take the torch of faith from our predecessors and face the foes of our God with an uncompromising faith.

Across the years, we have achieved our aims through the aid of the Holy Spirit. Our Convention has been heralded as one of the best stewardship Convention in the nation, but we cannot rest upon these laurels; there is much land to be possessed.

I challenge you, therefore, to lay aside all boasting and bragging, to lay aside all ill-will, fear and ungodly thinking, and let us go on "... to Mount Zion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, ..., to a Judge who is God of all, to the spirits of upright men who have attained perfection," (Hebrews 12:22-23 Williams).

Through memories of many a person do we arrive at this memory-to-be. Such a memory, this the Centennial Year of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina, will inspire our hearts, widen the horizon of our minds, and activate our hands. For in memories shall we join hands with those who have served, prayed, and loved in striving to witness and be witnesses for Christ. Likewise may we shoulder the mantle, carry the torch with courage and hope, and make our contributions as the pilgrims of faith across the years have done, never allowing our faith to be overshadowed by hardships and struggles (no cross, no crown).

I am grateful to God, the friends, and constituents of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention who have afforded me the opportunity to serve in His mission assigned to this Convention's hands and be a part of this centennial history.

So on shall we go forward into the new age, but now on the threshold of even the beginning of another centennial, and not stay at this moment of jubilee celebration; for "a charge to keep we have and a God to glorify." Therefore, let us ". . . trust in the Lord (who has established the work of our hands in His Kingdom Building) with all (our) heart and lean not unto (our) own understanding," paraphrase of Proverbs 29:18, so that our eyes maintain the vision and we perish not as a conventional people.

DR. ELLEN SEABROOK ALSTON

Dr. Ellen S. Alston, brought expertise to the position. Because of her involvement in the mainstream of events and happenings, she served the Woman's Baptist State Convention with distinction.

Dr. Alston was a native of Franklinton, North Carolina, and was the daughter of Lovelest and Caroline Eaton. At an early age she accepted Christ. She joined First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina where she remained for over 30 years.

She received her early education in the public schools of Franklinton and Cambridge, Massachusetts. Graduating from Hampton Institute and Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina. She served faithfully on the Board of Trustees at Shaw University and was a Trustee Emeritus until her death, and was awarded the Degree of Doctor of Laws by Shaw University in 1957.

Dr. Alston was the Principal of Mill Elementary School in Franklin County for many years, after which she assumed the position of Executive Secretary of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina for 26 years. During her tenure as Executive Secretary she authored and edited the "Missionary Helper" and founded the Youth Bible Camp. Dr. Alston has served as Trustee of the North Carolina Council of Church Women; The Executive Board of the Central Orphange, Oxford, North Carolina; Lott Carey Foreign Missionary Woman's Auxiliary, National Conference of America National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc.; NAACP; Wake County Credit Union; Secretary of Franklin County Committee on Negro Affairs and Franklin County Teachers Association. Her work took her to Foreign Countries — Africa, Egypt, Rome, England and Jerusalem.

Her memberships included: Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Past matron of Pride of Labor Chapter No. 142B O.E.S.P.H.A. Household of Ruth No. 116. She was cited as the "Star of the Century" by the 12th Masonic District PHA in 1970. Her biography was included in "Americans of Achievements," a registry of the careers of Distinguished Negro Citizens, and "Who's Who Among North Carolina Negro Baptists."

She was first married to the late Mr. Joseph Seabrook, to this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Bernice Seabrook Shelton, of Philadelphia, Pa. She later married the late Mr. George W. Alston. This union produced three daughters: Dr. Mozelle Alston McKay, Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Agnes Alston Clarkson, Olympia, Washington and Dr. Georgia Alston Jones, Garner, North Carolina.

To The Women's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention:

How pleased I am to send my greetings to you on the occasion of your centennial observance. This is truly a time of celebration for your Auxiliary to the General Baptist State Convention of North Carolina.

The observance of one hundred years of service is an appropriate time to give thanks for the work which has been done and to look to the future with renewed hope. Because of your ministry, many around the world have come to know Jesus Christ; they have been served in times of need, and they have seen Christian love in action. Through your various ministries, you have been the salt, light, and leaven in a troubled world. The work of your members and those who have gone before you has eternal consequences.

Thank you for all you have done. I am particularly grateful for your work in North Carolina and the leadership you have provided among Christian women. As you now look to the next one hundred years, may you continue to respond to His leading in the work of your organization. My prayer is that you will always find ways to serve God's children and that you will be faithful to the tasks that all of us as Christians are called out to do.

My warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

City Of Raleigh

TO: THE MEMBERS AND GUESTS OF THE WOMAN'S BAPTIST HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY

Greetings and a warm welcome to you as you convene in Raleigh to observe your Centennial anniversary.

You are to be commended for your dedication and devotion to this organization as I know that your good works have benefited countless people throughout the world during your one hundred years of existence.

It is indeed a tribute to those who have directed and guided the members of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary, motivating and encouraging them to carry on the Christian traditions established by its founders and followers down through the years.

I am pleased that you have chosen Raleigh to be your host City and, on behalf of the City Council and all of the citizens of Raleigh, I extend best wishes for a fruitful and productive convention this year and continued success in the years to come.

Sincerely,

GREETINGS AND CONGRATULATIONS

To

THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS

THE WOMAN'S BAPTIST HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONARY
CONVENTION OF NORTH CAROLINA

As you celebrate your Centennial Anniversary, one hundred years of existence speaks of more than time. It speaks of dedicated leaders and committed followers. It speaks of love shared and service rendered. It speaks of lending a helping hand and exhibiting a compassionate heart at home and abroad.

Shaw University shares some common concerns with you. It, too, has sought to develop leadership dedicated to worthy causes. In its educational philosophy: "Liberally educating students for the world of work," it is thinking primarily of preparing young people for a life of service. Shaw University has always emphasized Christian Education. It is proud to note that scattered throughout this state are ladies who have graduated from Shaw who are performing with excellence in their local missionary groups and on the state level.

Our commonality and our mutual support of each other give us a sort of interdependence which mates us together in a harmonious relationship to bring good to all who seek our aid.

We congratulate all of you. Special congratulations go out to Mrs. Thelma Horton for the creative and innovative leadership which she has supplied as the convention's president.

To Dr. Priscilla Brodie, as the convention's executive secretary, Shaw University offers accolades and the highest praises. She has been untiring and hard working in her position.

Shaw, one hundred and nineteen years of educating boys and girls and the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention, one hundred years of carrying the good news of Jesus Christ to people in far away places must continue to be a mutual support to each other, and both must continue to do the will of the Lord, "...For he is good; his steadfast love endures forever." Dear Sisters of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention:

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, sends her warm and sincere greetings and congratulations to you during the special year of celebration.

We congratulate you on your one hundred years of splendid work in promoting a spirit of missionary endeavor, Bible study, and missionary support among the women and young people of your Convention.

We rejoice with you in your many accomplishments and the spirit and enthusiasm with which your leaders and members enter into and carry on the great work of missions.

We will be praying for you during this special year, that you will experience a sense of renewal and re-commitment to this task of missions in our lost and troubled world; that you will gain from reviewing your illustrious past and remembering again the work and dedication of those who have laid the foundations of the work; that this period of recollection will give you fresh vision and renewed spiritual energy for the work that lies ahead.

We pray that the years to come will see many great victories won. And we pray that they will also bring about a closer walk and fellowship between us as sister organizations.

A Tribute
"Twenty-Eight Years of Service"
by
J. Young Mims

T — is for TRIBUTES of love, and gratitude which we bring;
While she can smell the roses, and hear our glad voices ring.
W — is for sure WINNER, for the WILL to do her best;
For WORK to advance His Kingdom as she faces each contest.
E — is for ENLISTMENT — the golden key to success;
Her appeals are so urgent, the only response is — "Yes."
N — is for special NEED in far-away Brewerville;
A plea goes out for library books — there are vacant shelves to fill.
T — is for TRAINING WORKERS — an objective near to her heart;
Not only does she send them — she goes to do her part.
Y — is for YEARS of service with the Woman's State Convention;
Her outstanding leadership merits National attention.
E — is for EDUCATION — just think what our plight would be,
Were it not for Central Orphange and Shaw University.
I — is for INFORMATION — something the library shares
On our Lott Carey Campus where students know "someone cares."
G — is for GROWTH and GIVING, for GRACE which sustains anew;
She lives and gives by God's plan as every good steward should do.
H — is for HUMILITY — noteworthy Chris-like way;
For good HEALTH and HAPPINESS which we wish for her today.
T — is for TIME to arise and go hence to foreign lands —
Indian and West Africa have proof of our helping hands.
Y — is for YOUTH DEPARTMENT, with highest commendations;
For YOUNG ADULTS, the most recent of her visualized creation.
E — is for EXPANSION of program and objectives;
We thank God for a leader who follows His directives.
A — is for ASSEMBLY — the J. J. Johnson Retreat at peaceful Laurel Hill, where Baptist in fellowship meet.
R — is for vast RESOURCES, wisely and prayfully used;
To reach out and touch lost souls who are weary and confused.
S — is for STAFF and SUPPORTERS and for our dear SAVIOUR, too;
For SERVICE through His guidance — SISTER HORNE, we Honor You!

C. C. CRAIG
Executive Secretary

Greetings and Congratulations to the Officers and Members of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention:

Warmest congratulation on the occasion of your centennial. You have accomplished a great deal in the past one hundred years, and every step forward has been made possible by good judgment and dedicated work.

Your centennial celebration theme, "A Century of Christian Witness" is most appropriate, for it can serve as a guide through the next one hundred years.

May the strength and service of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention grow greater with the years.

Sincerely,

C. C. Craig

In Memoriam

DR. RACHEL LUTON BOYCE
1872-1977

Dr. Boyce was born in Colerain Township, Bertie County, one of twelve children of Daniel and Hester Freeman Simons.

She became a member of the Pineywood Chapel Baptist Church, September 15, 1884.

She attended public schools and State Norman School at Elizabeth City, N.C. She remained there for three years and became a teacher.

Through the aid of her pastor, Reverend George E. Freeman, she became a worker for Shaw University and remained faithful until her death.

Her mission work started with a Mission Band in Sycamore. Because of her dedication to Shaw University, the Late Dr. C. S. Brown invited her to join him in Missionary Pursuits in Hertford and Bertie Counties. After the death of Mrs. Brown, she became president — a position she held for thirty years.

She also attended Hampton Institute, Federal Normal School (Now Federal State University) and Shaw University. She was Jeans Supervisor for twenty-three years. She was honored with the Doctor of Humane Letters from Virginia Theological Seminary and College.

She was married to the Late Reverend Charles Luton and to this union two sons were born, all of whom proceeded her in death. She later married B. F. Boyce. He too proceeded her in death.

She was Chairman of the Executive Board of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina.

Our Seventh President

DR. JOHNNIE BLUNT MCLESTER
A CHRISTIAN LEADER, SCHOLAR, HUMANITARIAN AND WORLD TRAVELER

A native of Mobile, Alabama, and a product of Talladega College and Columbia University, New York City. She is the widow of the late Dr. Charles Edward McLester, Founder and Organizer of Morehead Avenue Baptist Church, Durham, North Carolina.

After thirty years of service as Teacher-Counselor in the Durham City Administrative Unit, she retired to become the seventh President of the Woman's Convention. Because of her own involvement in the many, local, state and national organizations, she encouraged the women to paritcipate more fully by becoming members of national and international bodies, namely, the North Carolina Council of Churches, Church Women United, National Council of Negro Women, The North American Baptist Women's Union and the Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention to which their churches belong. She instituted the Annual Banquet, for fellowship, fun and finance, and mini-institutes.

For almost twenty years, she was Chairman of the Executive Committee, and for seven years she was Chairman of the Board of Directors of the J. J. Johnson Assembly Committee, and served on the Advisory Board of the Youth Bible Camp. Currently, she serves as Historian of the Convention, Trustee of the Parent Body, and a Trustee of Shaw Divinity School.

On National Level, she is Chairman of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Study Commission and Parliamentarian of the Woman's Convention Auxiliary National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated.

Our Ninth President
1981-19—

MRS. THELMA COMPTON HORTON
GOLDSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

Dr. and Mrs. Isaac B. Horton, II

Mrs. Horton is a native of Burlington, North Carolina and is the oldest daughter of Mrs. Ona B. Faucette Compton and the late Samuel Clarence Compton. She is a graduate of the North Carolina Sanatorium School of Nursing, McCain, and the St. Phillips School of Nursing, Medical College, Richmond, Virginia. She is a registered professional nurse.

She is a member of the First African Baptist Church, where her husband serves as the "undershepherd of the flock." She serves the Church and its related auxiliaries in many capacities as a teacher, leader, counselor and friend; also a supporter of her husband's ministry.

She is a member of Wayne County Missionary Union and the Bear Creek Woman's Auxiliary where she serves as a consultant. She is also active in the District Conference.

As a member of the Executive Board, Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention; Board of Directors, Woman's Auxiliary, National Baptist Convention, Incorporated; Trustee Board of the Shaw Divinity School; Board of Managers, Church Women United; Goldsboro's Ministers' Wives Alliance; Executive Committee and General Board, General Baptist State Convention, she strives to "lift God-ward suffering mankind."

The new thrust of the General Baptist Family to work more closely together has demanded "full-time" in the performance of her duties as President of the Woman's Convention. She moves forward with great confidence and the overwhelming support of her family.

Growth has continued under her leadership: Young Adult Retreat (1983), Youth Evangelism Conference (1982), State-Wide Missions Prayer Day (1982), National Missions Month (1984); Self-Study, Benevolent and The Awards and Recognition Committees appointed and working; Library in Liberia, West Coast Africa named: "THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST LIBRARY"

Among her many honors and awards is the Honorary Doctor of Humanities Degree from the Detroit Bible Institute. The degree will be conferred Sunday, April 29, 1984 at the First African Baptist Church.

A Historical Sketch
1884-1984

"A CENTURY OF WITNESSING FOR CHRIST" has been experienced by the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina. The exact month has not been established, but the year of 1884 has been established. The brief historical sketch from the Diamond Jubilee papers of 1959 hastened to remind us that "Great movements in history do not begin on specific dates, nor do they end on specific dates. Instead, they often reach back into the minds and hearts of men, antedating for an undetermined time the actual beginning of the event." This statement is true and applicable to our entire history. The two elected officers as Historians and the present Historical Committee have brought significant data forward to 1967, when the last revised Convention History was published.

The first meeting was held at The Tupper Memorial Baptist Church on South Blount Street, only a few blocks from Shaw University. Dr. Henry Martin Tupper, the President of Shaw University, was the Pastor. It is recorded that Dr. Tupper addressed the first group of women, who had assembled, gave them his blessings, and assisted them in forming some goals. Women present at that first meeting were sincere in the desire to form a Convention. Many of them remained officers or in some leadership capacity for more than fifty years.

Mrs. Lizzie Neely was elected the first President. We do not know very much about her, except that she had a dynamic personality, and that she came from Salisbury, North Carolina. However, she kept the office for seven years (1884-1891). It is recorded that she notified the sisters that she was moving to a northern city and she offered her resignation. At the next annual session in the month of October, Mrs. Pattie Gilliam Shepard became the second President. She served long and well for 37 years. During her administration, the Youth Department was organized, a full-time Corresponding Secretary was hired, Field Workers and Missionaries were sent out on the Field at home and abroad. State Bible Teachers were appointed, and County Unions and Auxiliaries were formed. These women left no stones unturned in that first fifty year period. In 1930, Mrs. Pattie G. Shepard became ill and within that same year she passed. Mrs. Hattie E. Shepard of Durham became President. Soon after Mrs. Hattie Shepard had taken office, a chair in Religious Education was set up at Shaw University. This was set up as a Tribute to the late Mrs. Pattie Shepard. Dr. John Tilley was the Director of that Program. Mrs. Hattie Shepard served only three years, (1930-1933). In this approximately fifty year span, we are reading the names of Mrs. Sallie Mial and her husband, the Reverend Mial; Mrs. Antionette L. Ransome, who loved the Youth; Mrs. Martha J. Brown, Field Worker; Mrs. Sallie T.S. Eaton, Corresponding Secretary and Historian, and Chairman of the Executive Committee; Miss Mary A. Burwell, who became Corresponding Secretary-Emeritus; Mrs. Annie L. Filmore, Former Corresponding Secretary and Field Worker; Mrs. Cora Pair Thomas, a full-time Missionary to Africa, with Reverend Thomas, and later Miss Minnie G. Lyon of Oxford. Miss Capitola Wilson, who was a graduate of Moody Bible College, joined the teaching forces on the Field and at Shaw University to train young women in Christian Education. In 1934, Mrs. Viola McMillan came into office as president. She was the wife of an outstanding physician in Tarboro. Mrs. McMillan was well acquainted with the work, having served on the Field with Mrs. Martha J. Brown and others.

Under Mrs. McMillan's presidency many things happened and many new people came aboard. Mrs. Rachel L. Boyce of Bertie County became Chairman of the Executive Board. Mrs. Ransome became ill and her daughter, Omelia Johnson, replaced her, who later was hired as Bookkeeper. Mrs. A.B. Rogers of Oxford became the Corresponding Secretary, replacing Miss Mary Burwell. She served the Convention for 17 years. In the span of her term of office, she continued to highlight the organizing of County Unions and the District Conferences started by Miss Burwell. In 1946 Dr. Wendell C. Somerville had resigned from the office of State Executive Secretary of the General Baptist Convention to become the Executive Secretary of the Lott Carye Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, Headquarters in Washington, D.C. Dr. Thomas Kilgore became the Executive Secretary of the General Baptist of North Carolina. In August of that same year, negotiations were complete for the Woman's Convention to assume the position of an Auxiliary to the General Baptist Convention. Certain guarantees were written into the agreement of this Auxiliary status. The agreement was signed by the Executive Committee of the General Baptist State Convention: O.S. Bullock, Chairman; G.W. Watkins, Secretary; P.A. Bishop, President and T. Kilgore, Executive Secretary. With this signed clarification of the meaning of an Auxiliary to that body, the women continued to work with the men as a Parent Body. The same objectives are major thrust with a few up-dates (1) Shaw University and the Shaw Divinity School (2) Foreign Missions (3) State Missions (4) Central Orphanage (5) The J.J. Johnson Baptist Assembly. The status of an Auxiliary still exists; however, the Woman's Convention finds it necessary to defend the agreement, from time to time, as some of the Parent Body newcomers feel that there is no further reason to honor this agreement. This is what the women feared in 1946. Mrs. A.B. Byrd, Vice President, of Rocky Mount, worked with Mrs. McMillan. As time went on the Youth Department continued to grow, with its State Advisors and Supervisors. In 1949, Mrs. McMillen became ill and resigned the office of President, and Mrs. Berthenia D. Horen of Winston-Salem was elected. Mrs. Horne had been serving with the Youth Department. Dr. Ellen S. Alston, Executive Board Chairman of the Lott Carey was hired as the first full-time Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Woman's Convention of North Carolina. The team of Alston and Horne started a new era.

The officers to serve with Dr. Alston and Dr. Horne from 1949 were: Mrs. Addie Byrd, Rocky Mount, First Vice President; Mrs. Princess Wynn, Warrenton, Second Vice President; Mrs. J.B. McLester, Durham, Third Vice President; Mrs. Clara A. Moore, Wilmington, Fourth Vice President; Mrs. Clara W. Nesby, Statesville, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Mary Sapp, Raleigh, Assistant Recording Secretary; Mrs. Rachel L. Boyce, Windsor, Chairman of the Executive Committee; Mrs. Rosalie Wyatt, Salisbury, Assistant Chairman of the Executive Committee; Mrs. Omelia R. Johnson, Raleigh, Bookkeeper; Mrs. Tempie Norwood, Oxford, State Prayer Chairman; Mrs. Sallie T.S. Eaton, Henderson, Historian; Mrs. Lavine McGrier, Warrenton, Youth Supervisor.

In this era, the Self-Denial Fund was activated, Year-Round Committees formed around each Major Objective, District Work boosted, a bus purchased for Shaw University's travel needs, and the Young Adult Department organized. Our Woman's Convention became active with the Woman's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Incorporated. Mrs. Horne served the Convention as its President for 18 years. Mrs. Sallie T.S. Eaton passed; Mrs. J. B. McLester became Chairman of the Executive Committee; Mrs.

Boyce became ill and Mrs. Rosalie Wyatt was voted Chairman of the Executive Board. In this eighteen year period Mrs. Wynn passed, Mrs. A.B. Byrd became ill, and Mrs. Clara A. Moore passed. The first Public Relations Committee was appointed, chaired by Mrs. Thelma C. Horton, Chadbourn. In 1968 Dr. Ellen S. Alston resigned because of health reasons. A Search Committee, Dr. Johnnie B. McLester, Chairman; Dr. Rose Butler Browne, Durham; Mrs. Rosalie Wyatt; Mrs. Lillian Pittman, Rocky Mount; Mrs. Luella D. Edwards, Fayetteville, and Mrs. Georgia M. Turner, Lumberton, sought to replace Dr. Alston. Dr. Berthenia D. Horne was offered the position. She accepted and for ten years she served as the second Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Woman's Convention. This span of time, when combined with her presidential years, makes twenty-eight years in the mainstream.

Mrs. Vera M. Slade of Ahoskie became the President. She served from 1968-1972. Tenure of the office of the president became effective. Mrs. Slade was followed by Dr. Johnnie B. McLester of Durham, who had served as third, second, and first vice-presidents, and now the seventh President and still Chairman of the Executive Committee. Mrs. McLester was the wife of the late Dr. Charles E. McLester of Second Baptist Church, Durham, and later founded and organizer of the Morehead Avenue Baptist Church, Durham. She served as President from 1973-1977. Because of her many interests in local, state and national bodies, she was insistant upon the women projecting with Church Women United, larger participation with National Council of Negro Women, the North Carolina Council of Churches, the Baptist World Alliance and more interest in the National Baptist Convention through their individual churches' support. She also instituted the promotion of an annual Banquet, for fellowship, fun and finance. This has been one of the Convention's joys to promote.

Starting with the presidency of Dr. Horne and Dr. Alston's work, was the promotion and organization of the YOUTH BIBLE CAMP. This we continued on the campus of Shaw University each year in June. This was such a success that Dr. J.J. Johnson and his family made a gift of fifty acres of land to the Woman's Convention to build a camp on the site. It was accepted and developed under the Executive Secretary-ship of Dr. Horne. It was completed and dedicated during the presidency of Dr. McLester, who also served as Chairman of the Board of Directors for six years. Dr. Horne staffed the newly built facility for three weeks each year for camping for youth, and the Leadership Training Conference, one week for missionary women.

In 1977, July, Mrs. Georgia McNeill Turner became the eighth President. She continued to build upon the foundation. Mrs. Slade, the past president of our Convention, became President of the Women's Auxiliary of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention, and Mrs. Horne retired from the Executive Secretary-Treasurer position. Again a REPLACEMENT COMMITTEE was appointed, and again Dr. J.B. McLester was appointed Chairman. In 1979 the Search Committee sought the service of Dr. Priscilla A. Brodie, a young woman, who was a recent graduate of Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest, with a Doctor of Ministry degree, and also an undergraduate degree from Shaw University, from Franklinston. At the time, she was Assistnat Professor of Christian Education at the Shaw Divinity School. The Convention felt very fortunate to secure her services, with the preparation and background that she possessed. She also comes from the home of Baptist parents, who are Shawites. She also has sat at the feet of the late Dr. Ellen S. Alston, as a child, in the same church. "Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?" Mrs. Georgia Turner's tenure would be over in 1981; however, she helped to begin plans for the Centennial of the Woman's Convention. She appointed fifty (50) persons to serve as resourse persons and the over-all Committee. The Historian, Dr. Johnnie B. McLester, served as Chairman and has been assisted by Mrs. J.A. Little, Historian-Emeritus; Mrs. Harriet S. Jones, the oldest living member of Tupper Memorial Baptist Church; Mrs. Novella T. Whitted, Co-Chairman; Dr. Berthenia D. Horne, Co-Chairman; President Thelma C. Horton, Executive Secretary-Treasurer Priscilla A. Brodie and our Office Staff, and others.

In 1981, July, Mrs. Thelma C. Horton of Goldsboro was elected the ninth President. During the time span of 1980-1983 some annual new adventures such as the Family Missions Conference (1980), Ministers' Wives Retreat (1981), the State-Wide Missions Prayer Day (1982), the Youth Evangelism Conference (1982), and the Young Adult Retreat (1982) were started. We are still supporting the General Baptist Convention with the objectives and outlook. Dr. O.L. Sherrill, Executive Secretary-Treasurer Emeritus was followed by Dr. C.C. Craig, who had served for fifteen years as his assistant. Our Women's office is now staffed with four full-time workers, who assist Dr. Brodie. Mrs. Horton is the wife of Dr. Isaac B. Horton II, Pastor of the First African Baptist Church, Goldsboro, the home of the General Baptist Convention of North Carolina. Our work has grown so fast, that now the office of the President is a full-time, volunteer job. Dr. E. Burns Turner, who followed, Dr. J.R. Manley of Chapel Hill, is the energetic President of the General Baptist Family. He is the pastor of the First Baptist Church in Lumberton, and is the husband of Mrs. Georgia Turner, our immediate past President.

The Foundation of the past has held us thus far; let us continue to make the planks strong, to win the world for Christ, and to be careful to WITNESS for another century.

Some Historical Facts
The Young Adult Missionary Department

A NEED — 1964

She was a little lady in statue, but a big lady President, on organizational ideas for the Woman's Baptist State Convention's future. This was Mrs. M. A. Horne.

Mrs. Horne had a dream which she shared with the Woman's Convention in her address in the form of a recommendation in the 1964 annual session held at the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Durham, Dr. E. T. Brown, Pastor.

Realizing the need that there were too many young adult women in our churches who were not a part of the missionary organization, and that this group could make a worthwhile contribution to missions if their talents, resources and attention were channeled into involvement, she recommended that "a young adult department be organized and that Mrs. Luella D. Edwards of Fayetteville become the director. This department would bridge the existing gap between the senior and youth departments. The director would meet with a special committee appointed in October, 1964, to work out the details and make a report in the One-Day Session, January, 1965."

A PLAN — 1965

In October, Mrs. Edwards asked each church to send at least three young adults to meet with her for the initial plans in January, 1965.

The One-Day session met January 9, 1965 at the First Baptist Church in Raleigh, and a "rough" plan for organizing the Y.A. Department was presented. There were seventeen members present who met in a Sunday School classroom and worked on the plan. This was a brand new venture but was to be used as a guide in organizing the local Y.A. department.

The plan called for the name; the age level (21-35) regardless of Maritial status.) the object (to organize this energetic and talented group of Y.A.'s into a department for the purpose of teaching and learning missions so as to strengthen the Cause of Christ through the local Church); a motto (To serve this present age"); how to get started (beginning with the Pastor and senior president seeing the need for one); officers (came as senior department); duties of the officers (same as seniors with a few variations); suggested meeting time; what to do in the meetings (Worship, Study, Fellowship, Work), and a theme song, "Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling" (Autumn).

The Convention was elated over the progress made and commended those who worked.

A PROJECTION — 1965

The Director reported to the Convention that she wanted to project some immediate aims to work on during the year. They were: (1) to organize a Young Adult missionary department in each Baptist Church were there is a Senior Circle by August, 1965 (2) to engage in strengthening the Cause of Christ (3) to acquaint the Y.A.'s with the program of the local church (4) to study the objectives of our Convention (5) to be represented as a body at the annual State Convention in August, 1965 for the purpose of organizing a State Young Adult Department (6) to send to the State Director the organization list as the organization is complete (7) to adopt a project for the State Department as soon as possible (8) to get regional directors in certain areas of the state to help organize the program on the State level.

A REALITY — 1965

THE NEED, PLAN, and the PROJECTION became a REALITY in the 81st session of the Convention meeting at New Pleasant Hill Baptist Church in Charlotte, Rev. S. V. Wells, Pastor. Even though a few more young adults were attending the meeting, they still met in a classroom. This time the thrust was to prepare a constitution with by-laws for the department. Dr. and Mrs. Coleman W. Kerry were most helpful with their expertise and support in general. Mrs. A. J. Ryans served as an advisor.

During the One-Day session in January, 1965, at Friendship Baptist Church, Charlotte, Rev. Coleman W. Kerry, Pastor, more history was made. Officers for the new department were elected and Rev. Kerry conducted the installation ceremony. The first officers were: President, Miss Bronnie Harris (Mrs. B. F. Daniels) Winston-Salem; First Vice President, Miss Dorothy Seigle, Charlotte; Second Vice President, Mrs. Zenobia Harden, Durham; Third Vice President, Mrs. Linda Thompson, Fairmont; Fourth Vice President, Mrs. E. M. Weaver, Ahoskie; Recording Secretary, Miss Rebecca Murray, Belmont; Mrs. Veta Mitchell, Gastonia, Assistant Recording Secretary; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Leola T. Harris, Statesville; Assistant Financial Secretary, Mrs. Grace Hill, Fayetteville; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Mary K. Robertson, Fayetteville; Treasurer, Mrs. Helen Ballentine, Raleigh; Worship Chariman, Mrs. Kennetta Thompson, Winston-Salem.

At this session, the department reported 18 organizations and $105.00. AMEN.

CHARTERED CHURCHES AND MEMBERS:

Those churches that met and helped draft the constitution were considered charters EBENEZER, Charlotte; FIRST BAPTIST, Statesville, FIRST BAPTIST, Fayetteville; FIRST NAZARETH, Asheville; FIRST MT. ZION, Charlotte; FRIENDSHIP, Charlotte; FRIENDSHIP, Gastonia; GREAT MT. SINAI, Charlotte; MOREHEAD AVENUE, Durham: MT. CALVARY, Goldsboro; MT. GILEAD, Durham; NEW BETHEL, Winston-Salem; PROVIDENCE, Rockingham; ST. PAUL, Charlotte; SECOND CALVARY, Charlotte; TABERNACLE, Gastonia; UNION, Durham; UNION, Winston-Salem; UNIVERSITY PARK, Charlotte; ZION MEMORIAL, Winston-Salem; MT. PLEASANT, Belmont, and MT. ZION, Winston-Salem.

CHARTERED MEMBERS (Those persons who met in the initial meetings and helped with the drafting of the Constitution)

Willie Turner, Asheville; Mentorie Clark, Rebecca Murray, Clara Epting, Barbara Grier, Ann Slaon Reid, Veter Jane McClure of BELMONT. Mrs. A. J. Ryans, Eva J. Wiley, Ruby Fincher, Eloise Mungo, Dorothy Seigle, Dorothy Mack, Dorethea Leak, Ruthie McCullough, Maggie Camp, Artie Phillips, Frances Broadway, Hortense Neal, Lucio May Pauling, Sarah Jenkins, Ausonia Martin and Lula Martin of CHARLOTTE: Nellie Samuels, Zeoniba Harden and Georgia Crosslands of DURHAM; Mary K. Robertson, FAYETTEVILLE; Georgia Ann Dye, Marie Caldwell, Myrtle Hoffman and Virginia Miller of GASTONIA; Pauline Reid, GOLDSBORO; Dorothy Speaks, HARMONY; Robbie Diggs, ROCKINGHAM; Mrs. Leola T. Harris, STATESVILLE: Arabella Davis, SOUTHPORT; Erma S. Frazier, Ruby Royals, Virginia Garson, Gwendolyn T. Carter and Bronnie M. Harris, WINSTON-SALEM.

AND . . . NOW . . .

Since the revelation of Mrs. Horne's vision in 1964 and the meeting of the seventeen young adults in 1965, this department has grown tremendously. Never in the history of the Baptist Churches in North Carolina has this age group become so involved. In addition to the missionary departments, there are also young adult choirs witnessing for Christ. This talented age group has added much to the spiritual life of the local church and the Convention — both numerically and financially. We have come from our first $105.00 to a budget of over $30,000.

There have been only two directors. Mrs. Bronnie Daniels succeeded Mrs. Edwards as director after having served several years as an associate Director. She accepted her responsibility as Director and has directed with skill, energy, expertise, compassion and spirit. Under her directions, young men have been added and take active part in its program and activities. A Young Adult Handbook has been written as a guide for local churches. A Retreat held at the J. J. Johnson Assembly was very successful.

Mrs. Daniels has been assisted by Mrs. Julia McDonald of Monroe who was elected Associate State Director.

Presidents of the Department have been: (1) Miss Bronnie Marian Harris (2) Mrs. Amanda Stevens, Lumberton (3) Miss Natalie Mitchell, Reidsville (4) Miss Darlene Eaves, Gastonia (5) Rev. Wayne Hines, Rocky Mount (6) Mrs. Phyllisa F. Kelly, Chadbourn.

The members of the Department thank God for the vision, the plan, the projection, the charter members and churches, and the reality as they accepted the responsibility to lift high the torch of Jesus and the toils of their planners.

They have engaged in several spiritual projects for home and foreign missions. They showered accolades upon the first director in a special service to show that they appreciated their legacy.

Mrs. Horne's visionary need is her legacy and will live on and on because she was led by the Holy Spirit to lead this age group to the point of a reality. TO GOD BE THE GLORY.

Brief History of Youth Department

History, it has been said, is a means of reflecting on past events and achievements in present times in order to plan for and project greater achievements in the future. Like a voice it forever sounds and resounds through the centuries, even until the end of time.

As the devoted Christian women were making history in North Carolina, ever striving for a united Baptist Womanhood in the state, they realized that their true history could not be written without uniting the youth of the state and bringing them under their wings.

Thus as the women's work progressed during these early years, so did the idea of junior groups. Sister Sallie A. Mial, using HOPE, a publication by Miss Joanna P. Moore, was inspired to form youth organizations. Thus it was that Sunshine Bands for children and What-I-Can Circles for older girls were organized year after year. Mrs. Antionette L. Ransom, treasurer of the convention conceived the idea of babies being brought into the conventional work for religious training. Out of this idea developed the Cradle Roll. Mrs. Martha J. Brown, Junior Supervisor, named the older boys Knights of Daniel.

In 1906 these church groups were made a part of the women's work. Thus was born the Junior Department of the Woman's Convention. The first officers were Miss Hannah Steward, President, Miss Louise Wood, Recording Secretary, and Miss Edna Thacker, Treasurer.

From that time forward many young women eagerly and earnestly engaged in the work of the department. Some of them were Miss Jimmie Jennings (Abernathy), a youth president, Miss Minnie C. Lyon, a teacher and Missionary, Mrs. Martha Brooks, Miss Lavine E. McGrier who served as president, Mrs. Martha J. Brown, Junior Supervisor, Miss Capitola Wilson and many others.

1917 — The Great War (WWI) caused a lag in the women's work and also the juniors. Women had to go to work as bread winners and the youth had more chores to perform.

1920 — Miss Capitola Wilson, who had recently graduated from Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, came on the scene and was given the dual role of working in the Missionary Training School at Shaw University during the winter and working on the field organizing youth groups in the wummer. Mrs. Martha J. Brown worked with her, also.

1923 — Miss LaVine Evans (McGrier) was elected Junior President, a young and devout child of God. Coming from a devoted Christian family, she had much to offer. Her tenure of office was from 1923-1929.

1930 — Miss Mildred Laws was elected to succeed Miss Evans.

1931 — Mrs. Martha J. Brown, who had worked with Miss Wilson since 1925, was appointed Junior Supervisor.

1934 — By this time, other young women had served as youth president. Among them were Miss Vivian Boyd, Miss Janie Brown. Miss Mildred Allen became Recording Secretary.

1936 — Mrs. Beatrice Underwood became Junior Supervisor. Under her supervision the youth department had made such stride until it became necessary for additional youth leaders to assist.

1937 — Mrs. Underwood recommended to the convention the names of five women who would serve as advisors for the juniors to work together with the supervisor and junior officers in studying and planning a more extensive program that would meet the needs and interests of the young people. These were Mrs. Harriet Smith, Mrs. Ellen S. Alston, Mrs. H. M. Moore, Mrs. A. L. Filmore, Mrs. L. P. Gregg and Mrs. Lavine E. McGrier.

History continued

1937 — The Advisory Council met to plan for reading material and a guide for the junior work.

1938 — Mrs. Underwood brought to the convention the first ACTIVITY CALENDAR in mimeograph form.

1941 — Mrs. Annie Forriest was elected as Junior President. She served until 1942.

1942 — Miss Eva L. Merrit was elected President. She had already come to the attention of the convention when she won the oratorical contest at the Baptist Conclave in Raleigh, N.C. and as winner of the "MINNIE C. LYON CONTEST" in High Point, N.C. Elected with Miss Merritt were Miss Queen Davis, Miss Mildred Allen and Miss Elizabeth Pitt. Mrs. L. E. McGrier was appointed Junior Supervisor, succeeding Mrs. Underwood.

1943 — Miss Merrit devliered her first annual message in Wilson, N.C. using the subject, "United We Grow."

One of the first things Miss Merritt worked on with her leaders was for the juniors to have more than one day for their session. Year by year and with zealous effort on her part, a day was added until the department was given the entire week for their activities. Juniors were being elected to office one year and the next year they did not return. And so they were encouraged to attend the convention regularly so as to become more knowledgeable about the convention and to become more effective as youth officers.

1946 — THE MISSIONARY HELPER was born, a quarterly that was used to assist the missionary women to plan more interesting worship services in their meetings. Mrs. Alston served as Editor and Miss Merritt as Co-Editor and writer. The youth department organized and began the Shaw Contest, Have a Heart for Missions, Minnie C. Lyon Contest, Miss Baptist Assembly, Supervisors' March, all for the financial support of the convention program.

It was during this time that the Youth Bible Camp was founded by Dr. Ellen S. Alston. Miss Merritt, Junior President was assigned by Dr. Alston to organize the camp, which she did. She directed it for 22 years.

1956 — Miss Merritt was appointed Associate Supervisor and Miss Patricia Hall was elected junior president. She served effectively. Following Miss Hall, Miss Ethel Delores McGrier, niece of Mrs. McGrier, was elected president. She served faithfully for several years until her marriage. Other devoted youths who followed were Miss Ethel Delores McGrier, niece of Mrs. McGrier, was elected president. She served faithfully for several years until her marriage. Other devoted youths who followed were Miss Linda Powell, Miss Hortense Merritt, Mr. James Lewis, Miss Audrey Kee, Miss Michelle Thompson, Miss Jewyl Edwards and many others since the Junior Department was first to begin a 2 year tenure for officers.

Miss Elizabeth Brooks of Gastonia, succeeded Miss Edwards and served loaylly, Mr. Michael Battle followed Miss Brooks, and Mr. Milton Todd of Raleigh followed. He is now the current president.

Mrs. McGrier remained Youth Supervisor for the state for a number of years. Following the demise of Dr. McGrier, Mrs. McGrier, resigned to become our Consultant. Mrs. Eva Merritt Pratt became the state Youth Supervisor. When Mrs. Pratt became the EDITOR OF THE MISSIONARY HELPER, our official publication, Mrs. Yvonne Mitchell became the state Youth Supervisor, a position which she now holds.

The Youth Department has grown to large proportions, with excellent attendance. Each president has brought some pride and achievements to the forefront. The budget has swelled, thus the objectives have not suffered. During the last annual session, the report shows that the Youth Department's budget assignment has reached more than $70,000.00

Many of our youth past presidents and past officers have acquired advanced degrees and are holding responsible positions. Many of our young men are now pursuing the ministry and are, in some cases, already holding full-time pastorates.

In 1982 Youth Evangelism Conferences began. The first one was held in Raleigh, North Carolina, at Martin Street Baptist Church. Youth and their supervisors attended in overwhelming numbers. L he Second Conference was held in Durham, at the White Rock Baptist Church. Again, it was well attended, with our youth in charge.

MRS. YVONNE MITCHELL
Youth Supervisor

Mrs. Mitchell, a native of Selma, resides in Clayton with her husband, Phillip and their son, Phillip, Jr.

She is a graduate of Shaw University and has been employed by the Johnston County School Board for more than 27 years. She has received many awards and honors because of her contribution to public education.

She is supervisor of the Youth Department in her church, her county and District.

Mrs. Mitchell has made many contributions to the Woman's Convention through the various boards and committees.

Her influence has been felt throughout North Carolina as she worked with Youth and challenged them to do their best for Jesus.

Miss Norman lives in Charlotte where she is actively involved in the Youth Activities of her church and its related affiliations. She has assisted Mrs. Mitchell in the implementation of the various programs and ministeries of the State Youth Department.

The Young Adult Missionary Department of Providence Baptist Church in Greensboro started a tutorial program as a project for nderachieving youngsters during the summer of 1971. This project turned out to be highly successful in the black community and s still in operation. It is now a major church program.

Mrs. Neda Harris, a Dudley High School employee who has taught 29 years, is the director of this enrichment program. This utorial program was the first to be established by a black church in the city.

In later years, young people from the A&T chapter of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity volunteered to assist the church in proiding tutorial services for the younger students. It currently operates on Tuesday evenings from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

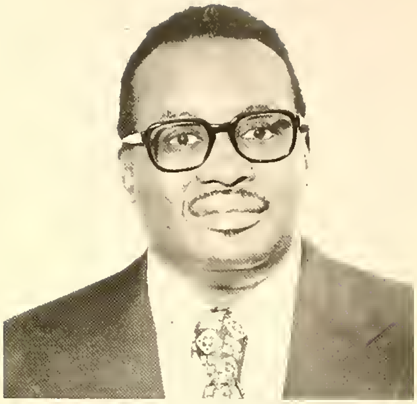
EBENEZER BAPTIST CHURCH



REV. ROYAL L. FERRELL

Ebenezer Baptist, Providence, N.C. was organized in early 1848, under Rev. Reuben Wilson, Sr., our first Pastor. In 1900 a wooden church was erected. Through the years the following Pastors have served: Rev. J. F. Harraway, Rev. F. N. McLaughlin, Rev. J. W. Wiley, Rev. W. J. Beard, and Rev. Royal L. Ferrell. Reverend Ferrell has been our Shepherd for nineteen years. Our present structure was built under Reverend W. J. Beard, and was occupied in November 1964.

Following the death of Reverend Beard, Reverend Royal L. Ferrell was called to be our pastor. A number of Deacons and Trustees have served with these Pastors. Many improvements have been made in the physical plant and a program of Christian Education has been started. The Church has been stationed and tithing encouraged. Present church officers are:

Miss Judy Adams, Church Clerk
Curtis Hunt, Treasurer
Henry Warner, Assistant Treasurer
Mrs. Alene Russell, Financial Secretary
Mrs. Myra J. Bowe, Commercial Secretary
Wilbert H. Bowe, Sunday School Superintendent

WEST BLADEN COUNTY MISSIONARY UNION

BLADENBORO, N.C.

Bladen County Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Union Number two is comprised of three churches: BRYANT SWAMP, FIRST BAPTIST, AND ROUND BRANCH.

The Senior Department, organized in the early 1920's with the capable leadership of the Reverend Connie Lewis, has continued to work, expand, and flourish under the subsequent guidance of Caroline Faulk, Rosa Bell Purdy, Mabel Hester, Martha Bethea, Bernice Faulk, Juanita Jones, Jimmy Bellamy, and Catherine Walters who is presently serving.

The Young Adult Department began its functions in the early 1970's. This department has experienced growth, positiveness, dedication, and commitment to serve since its inception. Its leaders have been Novella Lewis, Lillian Singletary, Bonita Walters, Sandra Bowens, Marie Ruffins, Linda Monroe and Marie Faulk. Margaret Lewis Moore now serves as president.

The Youth Department, which was also organized in the early 1970's, has continued to thrive and expand with Dempsey Walters, Jr., Vicky Bethea, Dinah Davis, Corothine Walters, David Jones, Alex Singletary and Chris Ruffins, working zealously under the leadership of Christ.

Union church pastors are the Reverend Calvin E. Johnson who has ministered at Bryant Swamp for approximately 10 years; Dr. A. C. Jones who has ministered at First Baptist, Bladenboro for 34 years; and the Reverend Garland Pierce who has ministered at Round Branch Church for 4 years.

May we all continue in the next century to witness for Christ.

Greetings!

To The Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Missionary Convention of North Carolina, the Zion Missionary Baptist Sunday chool Congress extends congratulations and best wishes for ONE HUNDRED YEARS of dedicated service to North Carolina nd throughout the world. We appreciate all of your efforts and contributions you have made in helping to evangelize this world. We ealize that during these 100 years, all has not been glorious. In our hearts and minds, we believe you have served well.

As you embark upon a new century, you must be aware that the problems you will face are far more threatening to Christianity ian any which you have confronted before. Therefore, you must rededicate your lives to more serious effort to strike at the base ots of the social ills which are destroying our civilization. It is our hope and concern that you make a more determined effort to imlement practical programs that will encompass the total needs of mankind.

Vice President Maxter Allen, my fellow co-officers, members of the Board of Managers, pastors, superintendents, and all other fficers of Zion Sunday School Congress join me in extending words of Congratulations and Best Wishes.

MRS. ESSIE WOMACK TRICE
Durham, N.C.

During the 1920's organized the Grant Street Missionary rcle in her neighborhood. After her death this Circle became own as The Minerva Womack Missionary Circle of White ock Church. This still continues.

Mrs. Womack organized a number of Missionary adven- res during her lifetime:

Organized the 10:00 O'clock Prayer Service at Lincoln Hospital.

Organized a weekly Community Prayer Band.

Helped Rev. & Mrs. W. F. Cox to get Oak Grove Free Will Baptist Church organized.

Held weekly services at Durham County Home and the Prisons.

When her daughter Essie was young, and her children were der, Mrs. Womack took daughter with her on a lot of her ntures. She also took her other daughters along and trained em in Missionary work.

Mrs. Womack died September 5, 1938.

1. At an early age she organized a community prayer band called the Sunshine Band.
2. For years she visited the Women and Men prison once a month where she had prayer meeting.
3. For more than 25 years she visited the Durham County Home for the aged, also Lincoln Hospital weekly, carrying flowers and praying and visiting the sick.
4. Became president of Minerva Womack Mission Circle and Church Missionary after the death of her mother.
5. Organized the Deaconess Board of White Rock Church, August 1963.

Mrs. Trice was honored with testimonial at White Rock and presented a plaque for her service to the community.

Honored as Woman of the Year at Kyles Temples A.M.E. Zion Church, Durham, N.C.

Mrs. Trice was affiliated with several organizations: The Philathea Sunday School, Communion Committee, Junior Daughters of Dorcas, The Order of Tents, The Lincoln Hospital Auxiliary. The Golden Ages.

WISHING

Woman's Baptist Home & Foreign Missionary Convention Much Success and Appreciation

during their
CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

CONGRATULATIONS AND SINCERE BEST WISHES ON YOUR 100th BIRTHDAY

One Hundred and thirty years ago in 1854, Sandy Run Missionary Baptist Church was organized under a large tree, by Reverend olelous Scott. The Reverend Scott of Mayesville, North Carolina was the first Pastor. Other Ministers were: Reverend George hodes, Reverend B. E. Davis, Reverend M. D. Stanford, Reverend M. D. Kornegay, and Reverend E. W. Wooten.

In 1942 Reverend E. W. Wooten, an energetic leader, launched a Building Plan. Our first brick structure was then erected. Our hurch has now become stationed and we have entered into a two and a half million dollar Housing Project. It is a Federal Low-ncome Housing Project, fifty six units and made of a brick structure. Reverend Wooten has led the Church with the cooperation of e Trustees, Deacons and Congregation to enjoy working in the Master's Cause.

Dr. D. L. Simons was born in Bertie County near Powellsville, North Carolina. He was the son of Daniel Simons and Cherry Simons and was educated in the public schools of Bertie County. He did further study at State Normal School, now Elizabeth City State University and Winston-Salem University.

Although an educational leader, he made outstanding contributions in the field of Christian education and religious activities throughout the State of North Carolina.

Dr. Simons professed Christ at an early age and became a member of the Piney Wood Chapel Baptist Church and served as church clerk for more than 20 years. Later he began his ministerial career in Bertie and Hertford Counties. Among the churches were Mt. Ararat, St. Paul, St. Elmo, Ashland, Elm Grove, Mt. Pleasant and Piney Wood Chapel.

His larger view of human relationships was translated into reality through the fraternal, religious and business activities which he encouraged. For a number of years he was Moderator of the West Roanoke Association, Treasurer of the GBSC, Chariman of the Finance of Lott Carey and member of Tri County Ministers Alliance.

As a fraternal leader, he served as Deputy Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Masons of Jurisdiction of N.C., Worshipful Master and Chaplain of Masonic Lodge No. 312 of Colerain, Secretary of the Endowment Board of Grand Lodge of the Brothers and Sisters of Loving Charity, an Elk and an Odd Fellow.

In June, 1917, he was married to Miss Florida E. Jenkins of Ahoskie and they became the parents of Mildred E. Simons and Dennie Lee Simons.

In a career that spanned more than three score years, he was brought in close contact with the Nation's best leaders, and won the respect influence of countless men and women throughout the country.

IN MEMORIAM

I watched a sail, it dropped from sight
Over the round sea — a gleam of light
At last, far flashed farewell, and like a thought
Slipt out of mind, it vanished and was not.

Yet, to the helmsman standing at the wheel,
Broad seas still swept before the gliding keel.
Disaster? Change? He left me no slightest sign,
Nor dreamed he of that dim horizon line.

So may it be, perchance, when down the tide
Our dear ones vanish. Peacefully when they glide
On level seas, nor mark the unknown bound
We call it death — to them 'tis life beyond.

Rev. C. M. Moore, Pastor

Reverend Moore of Statesville was called to this church in July of 1939 when the church was hit by a cyclone. He, along with the members, rebuilt it. Later it was destroyaed again — by fire. Today Macedonia is a beautiful brick building with an educational building, paved parking, and a Baptismal Pool. On May 12, 1983, Rev. Moore celebrated his 85th birthday. On July 24, 1983, he celebrated his 44th year as pastor.

The Martin County Missionary Union views this Centennial as a display of oneness, of purpose to make the centennial activities spiritually and socially profitable. The spirit of brotherhood exists because we are born of the same spirit, and we are heir to the Kingdom of God. There is fellowship among all County Union members (15 churches) because those who are in Christ Jesus have fellowship one with another.

From The

Woman's Missionary and Educational Union of the Roanoke Association

MRS. STELLA BRYANT
President

The Women's Missionary and Educational Union of the Roanoke Missionary Baptist Association was organized in the early 1900's by the late Mrs. Hattie Graves, the wife of the late Dr. C. F. Graves, who founded Roanoke Institute.

This Union was designed to educate Baptist women in the understanding and developmental procedures of mission fields, both Home and Foreign.

"When I view my life as a missionary worker," President Bryant said, "I realize that some day we'll be able, as missionaries, to reach out to all corners of the world; that our area will be made a better place to live because of the contributions that the Women's Educational and Missionary Union has made."

MISS MARY STANFIELD
1898-1973

"You are not forgotten sister
   Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
   We will remember thee.

We miss you, our hearts are sore,
   As time goes by we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face
   No one can fill your vacant place."
